DECEMBER 13, 1853.

On motion of Mr. Hart, the communications of Governor Bell and Governor Henderson, submitting nominations to the Senate, were taken up.

Mr. Bryan moved that the communications be referred to the committee on State Affairs; lost.

On motion of Mr. Keenan, they were referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

DECEMBER 14, 1853.

Mr. Potter, chairman of the committee on the Judiciary, made the following report:

The Judiciary committee have considered the communications of Governor Bell and Governor Henderson, nominating certain persons therein named to certain offices, and report that they believe there is no existing law requiring the appointment of a commissioner for Fisher & Miller's Colony, and no act to be done rendering it proper that such appointment should be made. The committee, therefore, recommend that the nomination of Granville H. Sherwood, as commissioner of said Colony, be laid upon the table. The committee also recommend that the nomination of John A. Redfield, for Notary Public of Bastrop county, be laid upon the table; and the committee direct me to recommend the other nominations to the favorable consideration of the Senate.

M. M. POTTER, Chairman.
